DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bosma et al. (US 2005/0223998 A1). Bosma et al. disclose a milking parlor comprising a row of milking stalls accessible in serial order; and animal identification stations arranged in a row of milking stalls wherein the animals are identified as they enter the milking stalls in serial order by means of the identification station.
3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Norberg (6571730). Norberg discloses a milking parlor comprising a row of milking stalls accessible in serial order; and animal identification stations arranged in a row of milking stalls wherein the animals are identified as they enter the milking stalls in serial order by means of the identification station.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 13-20 are allowed.

5. Claims 2-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
